

Let Me Not Forget – (to the tune ‘Brother, Sister, Let Me Serve You’)

Let me not forget to see
in Christ, my new identity.
Let me not forget to give to Him the way I daily live.

Let me not forget to be
bowed down through His humility.
Let me not forget to face
the times I fall away from grace.

Let me not forget to hear that Jesus drives away my fear.
Let me not forget to heed
the call to know I’m truly freed.

Let me not forget to share
his love with people everywhere.
Let me not forget to pray
for friends and enemies today.

Let me not forget to raise
the all of me in endless praise.
In that hope, forever be,
dear Father, mine, eternally.
