

Lord, My Heart is Tender – (to the tune ‘Au Clair De La Lune’)

Lord, my heart is tender, lend your tender ear.
Hear my deepest struggles, make your presence clear.
Love of life surround me, drive away my fear.
When I feel you’re distant, help me see you’re near.

Lord, my heart is tender, lend your tender eye.
See my deepest longings, catch the tears I cry.
Make them living waters, streams of peace supply.
Quench my thirst and fill me when my heart is dry.

Lord, your heart is tender, join it now with mine.
When the darkness gathers, let your Spirit shine.
To your humble glory, all my life incline.
Draw me close to Christ, O tenderness divine!
