

Lord, as We Confess Our Sin – (suggested tune ‘Duke Street’)

Lord, as we confess our sin may your Spirit enter in.
In our hearts and minds replace all our fears and hurts with grace.

When we turn away in pride,
when we from your glory hide,
as we to the world retreat,
call us to the mercy seat.

Kneel we at the throne of peace,
now our burden finds release,
then in strains of joy we sing;
‘Jesus Christ, the Servant King’.

As there comes another day,
and your call to watch and pray,
this, in trust, forevermore,
guide us through salvation’s door.
